LESSON 1

THE ACADEMIC WRITING

Mr. BRIAN E. MAGBOO, LPT
Batangas State University TNEU

ACADEMIC TEXT

- educational texts
- Jargons
- specialized language

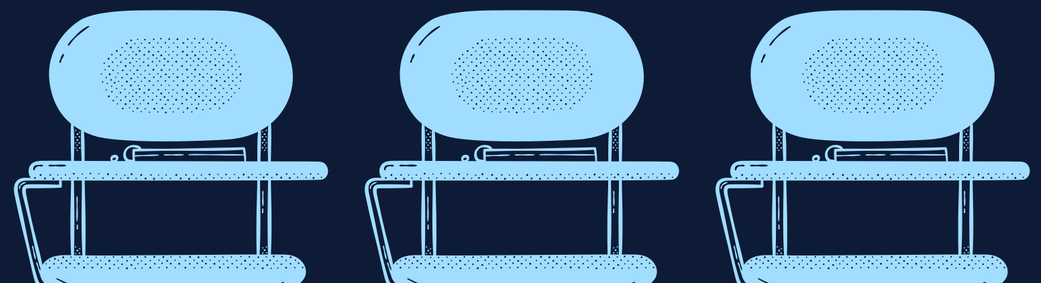
Why read academic texts?

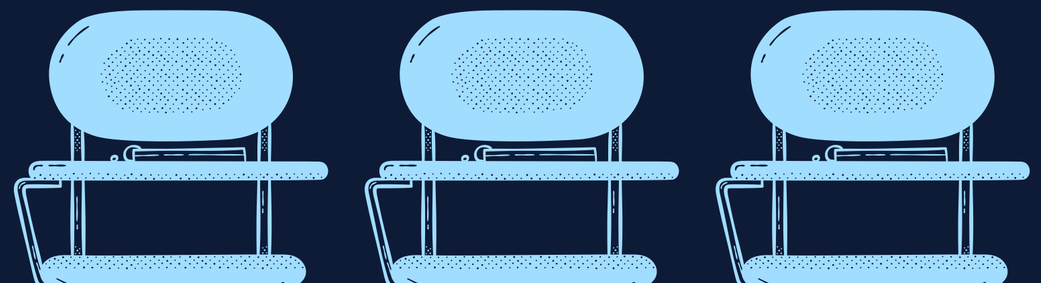
Why read academic texts?

- process of working with the text
- The reader recreates the meaning of the text.
- Readers negotiate the meaning with the author by applying their prior knowledge.

Why read academic texts?

- Improves critical thinking skills
- Tests students' comprehension levels





Types of Academic Texts

Textbooks

Student essays

Dissertations

Research articles

Case studies

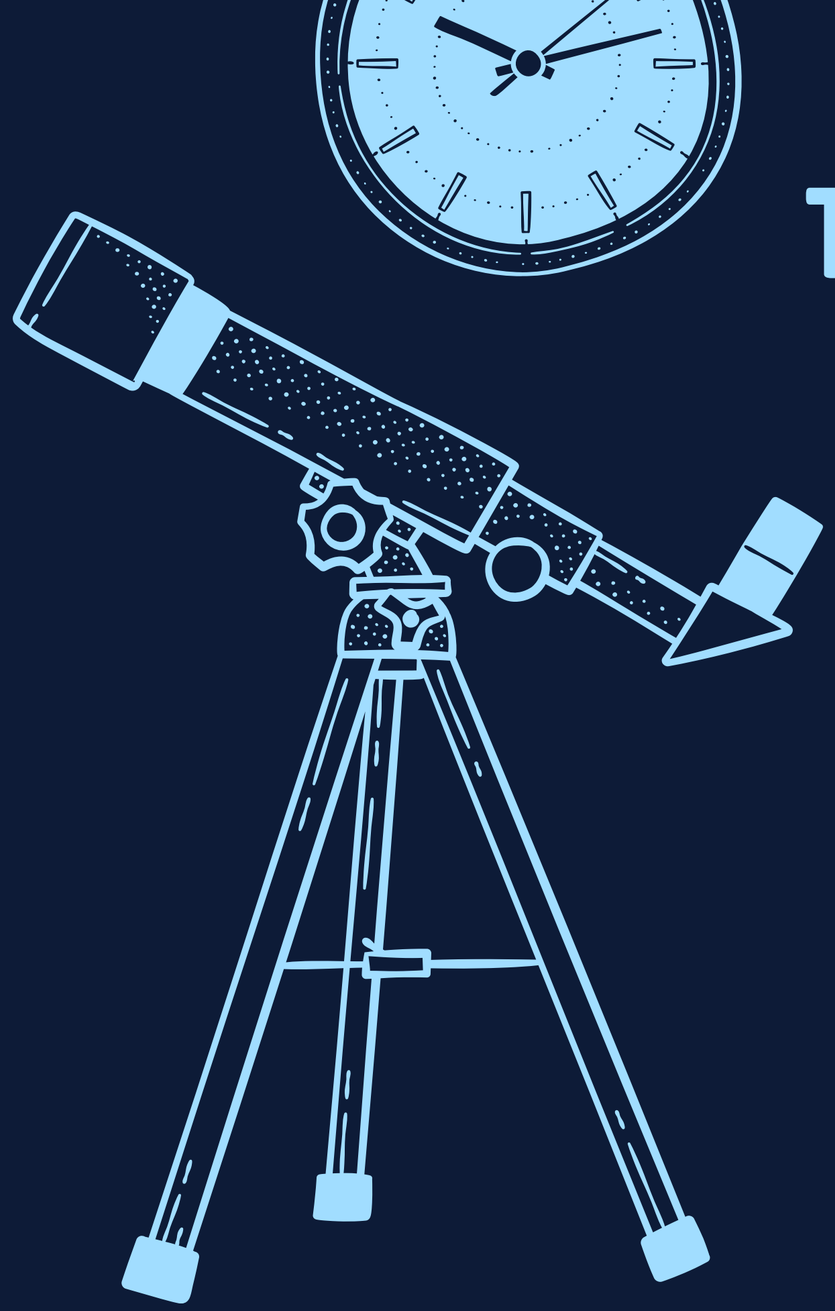
Reports

Reading in Various Academic Fields

- Science
- History
- Literature
- Mathematics

Structure of Academic Texts

- Introduction
- Method
- Results
- Discussion



Tips in Reading Academic Texts

- Search related topics that will make it easier for you to understand the concepts. You will encounter important highlights of the text.
- Read every sentence. DO NOT skip over. Write down a single word or phrase you do not understand.
- Reflect on what the text is trying to explain to you and be mindful in interpreting the things you have read.
- Make sure that what you are reading is a reliable one.

END